Hello there. One of my customers requested to reshape/stipple pistol grip on your GWACS polymer lower into something more ergonomic and comfortable for her small-ish hands. hence why i need to know how much material i'm working with. I would really appreciate if you guys could tell me the thickens of the 'skin' on the grip or better yet if you have a CAD drawing of the cavity inside - that would be most awesome to take a look at. Thanks! -Mike
